

Daughter of TN PCO Recognized for Charity Work

The 15-year-old daughter of Genma Holmes, the co-owner of Holmes Pest Control in Hermitage, TN and the Chair of the Steering Committee of NPMA's Minorities in Pest Management was recently recognized as the Youth Philanthropist of the Year for raising almost $20,000 for the Oasis Center of Nashville, a youth outreach and crisis services organization.

Alexis Holmes used the proceeds from her business, Alexis' Famous Pies, to support the Center. Her pies have been featured in several national magazines and she appears regularly on "Talk of the Town," a local talk show in the Nashville market. Customers include celebrities like CeCe Winans, the Tennessee Titans, Mercy Ministries, and Mayo Angelou.

Alexis' altruism also won her a recent meeting with singing superstars Patti Labelle and Wynonna Judd at Nashville charity event for the Oasis Center. Click here to see Alexis pictured with Labelle and Judd. A founding member of MPM, Genma Holmes serves on Oasis Center's board of directors and Chairs the Gathering Fund, which has raised nearly $250,000 this year.